About This Game

Piano Simulator

Early Access!

DISCLAIMER:

The game is not yet finished, please read before buying and rate accordingly!
There is only 1 octave right now, more is coming soon, it is a matter of a month to finish the repetitive work.

This is the only Piano Simulator game on Steam, and probably the first game where you can play piano in a 3D environment.
You can even add effects to the sound like in real synthesizers! (press on round switches in piano with a mouse)

The game supports a lot of all types of controllers including:

- Mouse input(click on piano keys for them to play, 1 octave)
- PC keyboard. Currently from Q to]

- Leap Motion. Use your fingers to play the piano! (1 octave, no effects right now)
 - More controllers(including MIDI) to come

The game is in early access and we currently offer:

Reverb, phaser and distortion effects!

- 1 octave to play(7 notes, others may not work, please read before buying!)
- Mouse input(click on piano keys for them to play)
- PC keyboard (use it as midi keys)
- Leap Motion. Use your fingers to play the piano! (sound effects doesn't work with leap motion controller)
- 1 level

Features:

- Play Piano with keyboard, mouse or leap motion being surrounded by nature
- English and Russian language, changable in-game

DO NOT BUY THIS GAME its poorly desgined the menu doesn't have words to tell you what what is, the top option lets you use the acutal piano and then the bottom one closes the game and boots up steam vr and await for an imput from either an oculus or htc vive vr headset, I understand yes it's a cheap game that wasn't suppose to be one the best sims but this isn't even fun to sit with even with its price and i won't complain more since i bought it for $0.59 the orginal price isn't worth this garbage either if it does become better i'll give it another shot
